Chairman's Message

Last month the Australian people were saddened by the untimely death of our Premier, the Honourable J. J. Cahill.

He was a good man and, in the political field, one of the most popular leaders his party has had.

Whether or not we agree with his political philosophy, all will pay tribute to him as one who, by dint of hard work, keen judgment, and courage, had overcome the drawbacks of a very humble beginning, and raised himself to the number one position in the State, where he was highly respected by his colleagues; a man who had achieved the pinnacle of his ambition, and who had attained the top of his calling to become a true leader.

In common with so many who achieve success and fame in their particular fields of endeavour, our Premier was a personality. He possessed that rare and envied ability to command respect from all sections of the community.

The sport of kings was his relaxation and, when official duties permitted, he was frequently seen at our race meetings.

Our Club was graced with his presence at its race meetings, and he always expressed a keen interest in our Club's affairs.

With his passing we have lost a valued friend.

CLUB NEWS & VIEWS

LANCE WILLIAMS RETURNS FROM JAPAN

Lance Williams has just returned from an extensive tour of Japan and the East and, judging from his glowing descriptions of that part of the world, it was all too soon. Lance says it's colourful and romantic, full of interest, and very much worth the trip.

Telling one on himself, Lance says that, while in Japan, he managed to get into the well known and exclusive Kawana Golf Club by devious means. It is situated some 40 miles out of town. Scoring the train as a means of transport, on the grounds that it would be much too slow, Lance and three friends decided to take a taxi which they managed to secure for the journey after much bargaining for the sum of £8; a very reasonable figure considering that the driver would have to come back without a fare.

Off they went on the journey and arrived at their destination some six hours later. It was only later that they discovered that the train journey took a bare two hours.

While in Singapore, Lance attended a three-day race carnival. He says it was excellently run and organised, but the fields were nothing near our standards here. The meetings were all-tote affairs with not a bookie in sight.

He ran into Arthur Ward whilst there and reports that he lives in a magnificent home, with no less than two swimming pools. The domestic staff consists of eight servants, a full-time driver for Arthur's car and, believe it or not, a personal bodyguard. The latter stands majestically outside the Ward residence looking very formidable. Lance is not sure whether he is a necessity or just there for local colour.

Lance tells of a cold war which went on for a short time between the white population of Singapore and the newly elected P.U.P. political party. It seems that in the famous Raffles hotel, they have a room called the Elizabeth Grill Room. It was named after Princess Elizabeth and boasted a huge picture of her as part of the decoration. When the P.U.P. got into power, they ordered the picture taken down. Immediately the white population boycotted the place, but it wasn't very long before the picture went right back up again.

TOMMY GREAVES IN ACCIDENT

We are sorry to have to report that Tommy Greaves was involved in a car accident recently. After a spell in hospital, Tommy went home to complete his recovery in more congenial surroundings. By the time this is in members' hands he should be well on the way to perfect health again. All wish you well, Tommy, and hope to see you with us soon.

DES COLLINS ILL

We are very sorry indeed to have to report that Des Collins, son of Committeeman Alf Collins, was taken ill early in October, and was rushed off to Lewisham Private Hospital.

After a couple of weeks under observation, Des was X-rayed, and his trouble was diagnosed as a gastric ulcer. When we went to press, Des was due to go home in a short time, so by the time this issue is in members' hands he should be well on the way to recovery.

We all miss your very welcome presence on the first, Des, and are looking forward to the day when you breeze in your hale and hearty self once again.

HOW AMERICANS SEE US

Two very welcome visitors to the Club last month were Americans, W. Ross Griggs and George K. Wahlgren. They were guests of club member Frank Paul, and are executives of the well-known American firm of general contractors, Vinnell Corporation of California.

The Vinnell Corporation goes in for construction in a big way and specialises in aircraft runways. They have built, or are building, runways in Thailand, Korea, Iwo Jima, Manila and Colombo.

Their visit here is purely an exploratory one, but Mr. Griggs, who is a vice-president of the company, stated that he hoped that their organisation "would become part of our community in the not too far distant future."

Both Mr. Griggs and Mr. Wahlgren were very much impressed with Australia. They said they found it young, vigorous and forward-looking and a land of opportunities.

One thing surprised them about our clubs here in Australia. This was the low subscription rate compared to those in the States. As a comparison, Mr. Griggs quoted the rates for one club he belongs to, the San Gabriel Club in California. Though membership is closed, the joining fee was $1,750 and the monthly subscription $30.

J. H. DUNCAN HERE FROM HONG KONG

Amongst our visitors to the Club this month was James Duncan from Hong Kong. James is a committeeman of the famous Hong Kong Club and is also a member of the Hong Kong Jockey Club. He is a marine surveyor by profession, and general manager of the Union Water Boat Co. which supplies and loads water to shipping.

Welcome to the club, James. We sincerely hope you are enjoying your stay here in Sydney.

TWO MEMBERS WIN PRIZES IN GARDEN COMPETITION

Two of our members featured in the prize list in the Garden Competition run by the Sydney Morning Herald and finalised early in October. They are Bill Kirwan and Jack Peters.

Bill carried off first prize in the unrestricted section, with the beautiful garden in his home at Wahroonga, and Jack received honourable mention in the section of up to 12,000 square feet.

This is Bill's second first prize. He won the competition in 1957. He also came third in last year's event.

Bill's garden is the result of a husband and wife effort, for Mrs. Kirwan works with Bill, and both spend most of their week in this very rewarding pursuit. Although the competition rules for the section Bill and his wife won state that any amount of paid labour can be employed, the Kirwans do practically all the work themselves. They employ a man only for cutting the lawns, and this only to allow themselves extra time for the creative side of tending to their acre site.

After winning the competition, the Kirwans made a very fine gesture in throwing their garden open to the public, charging a small admission fee, and donating the entire proceeds to the Hornsby Hospital. They raised £742 for this good cause, and the money went to purchase a television set for the maternity ward, and help in equipping the twin operating theatre at the hospital.

Jack Peters' honourable mention was also a very fine effort on the part of one who devotes the whole of his spare time to gardening. Jack does all the work himself, even to the hard manual labour and, when interviewed, had just finished moving four tons of soil from the front to the back of his place.

Jack says gardening gets you in. He has now given up all sports in its favour and estimates that he spends between 20 and 35 hours a week at it.

He says the competitions run by the "Herald" gets you in, too, and already he is laying plans for his entry for next year.

This was indeed a fine effort by our two fellow members. We heartily congratulate both on their very well deserved successes and wish them lots of luck for next year.

NEWS FROM CLYDE CHAPPLE

In a letter written from the "Strathmore" in the Mediterranean sea en route to Marseilles, comes news of Clyde's trip around the world. Clyde says the trip has been wonderful so far with calm seas and splendid weather all the way from Sydney. Both he and his wife have also found a world of interest in the ports of call on the way.

Says Clyde:—

"The 'Cairo tour', from Suez to Port Said, was an unforgettable experience.

SINGULAR HONOUR FOR STEWARD RIDDER

Mr. "Hank" Ridder, the amiable steward who looks after our needs so well in the lounge on the fourth floor, was highly honoured recently. He was specially selected to wait on Her Royal Highness, Princess Alexandra of Kent and her retinue during their stay on Lindeman Island. "Hank" was specially flown to the island for the purpose, and took his annual leave from the Club to fulfil this important engagement.

At the conclusion of a very welcome rest from her strenuous Royal Progress through Queensland, Princess Alexandra very graciously thanked "Hank" for his courteous and efficient attendance on her and her party and presented him with a beautiful autographed photograph as a memento of their association. As can well be imagined, this photo has the place of honour in "Hank's" home.

To "Hank", who comes from Holland, and who joined us in 1955, we all say hearty congratulations, well done indeed.

J. R. KINSMAN NEW PRESIDENT OF INSTITUTE OF SALES MANAGEMENT

Congratulations are in order to Mr. J. R. Kinsman, who has just recently been elected to the presidency of the Institute of Sales Management. His appointment was announced late last month by the secretary of the Institute.

Club members are glad indeed to see him receive due recognition for his services to the body whose members have shown their confidence in him by voting him to number one position.

APPRECIATES CLUB

It was brought home to me rather forcibly the other day just how much we take our Club for granted and fail to appreciate its atmosphere and friendliness.

I had been to a junior cricket match which finished early and found myself with a good part of Saturday afternoon to put in. As I hadn't been to the Club on a Saturday afternoon for some time, I decided to go in and have a few quiet drinks.

On arrival it was my pleasure to find a group of old friends, which I joined. Amongst them was Lance Noakes, Tommy Downing, Cyril Allman, Reg Alderson and Bruce Chiene.

We talked of this and that and finally the conversation got around to the things we did and the people we met in the Club twenty years ago. Names such as Leon Vandenberg, Pop Genge, Tom Manning, Dave Dawson and Vy Rowe were mentioned. Also were Reg Hastings and Bertie Ellis amongst many others.

After a couple of very pleasant hours spent in reminiscing, I left the club feeling that it was a fine thing to be able to come in and "chew the fat" with your friends in such a pleasant atmosphere as Tattersall's. It also struck

MEMBER OF FAMOUS RACING FAMILY JOINS CLUB

The other day Club Secretary, Lyal Binns, introduced a new member to committee man Alf Collins. The new member was Dr. Con. Reed and, on enquiry, Alf discovered that he was none other than the son of Roy Reed, the well-known jockey who rode Night March to victory in the Melbourne Cup of 1930.

The Reed family is very well known in racing circles. Con's father and his two uncles were all jockeys of no mean repute. One uncle, Ashley Reed, club-members interested in racing will recall, rode the winning double in the Caulfield and Melbourne Cups in 1937. The other uncle is Con. Reed, after whom

Dr. Reed was called, and who was also a very well-known rider.

It is indeed a pleasure to have a member of such a famous racing family amongst us, and we welcome you heartily to the Club.

L. POWER, R. CLELLAND VISIT US

It was a pleasure to see Leo Power and Ron Clelland in the Club last month. Leo is President of Brisbane Tattersall's Club and Ron is the Secretary. They were down here on a short visit, and many members took the opportunity of returning, in part at least, the hospitality they had received due to the good offices of these two gentlemen whilst in Brisbane.

All members hope that Leo and Ron enjoyed their stay and picked a winner or two whilst in our fair city.

COL ROSE OFF OVERSEAS

Popular club member, Col Rose, is off again in December for his annual jaunt abroad, but this time on pleasure bent, and only as far as California.

Col plans to spend Christmas there with his daughter, Margaret, and her family at their home in La Canada, the beautiful garden suburb of Los Angeles.

Col's wife, Helene, who is at present holidaying in Europe, will join the family house-party. Both she and Col will enjoy a month with their grandchildren and return to our shores late in January. On the way back they will spend a week in Honolulu.

The burning question amongst Col's friends is . . . Will he take his bowls???

BARNEY FAY ELECTED TO COMMITTEE

As a result of the election held early in October to fill the vacancy on the committee occasioned by the death of Ernie Vandenberg, bookmaking member, Barney Fay, was voted into office. Barney has been a member of our club for twenty-three years.

Barney Fay was born in Brisbane and was educated at St. Joseph's College in that city. After leaving school he took a job in the Queensland Government Railways. However, this was not to hold his interest for very long, and while still a young man, he decided to go into the bookmaking business.

At the time, he was associated with Brisbane Tattersall's Club, and in fact, had applied for the job of secretary of that organization. There were 187 applicants for the post and Barney was just nudged out of first place on the casting vote of the President.

Barney liked the bookmaking profession and make a success of it in his home state. So much so in fact, that he began to field at the bigger meetings in Sydney in the year 1936. He must have been a pretty busy man at the time for as well as fielding in the two States, he was a committeeman of Brisbane Tattersall's.

Feeling the yen to reside in a bigger metropolis, Barney migrated to Sydney in 1942, and has lived and worked here ever since. He has always retained his membership of our Brisbane counterpart however, and still enjoys a visit to his home state.

Barney is married, and he and his wife Eileen are the proud possessors of two charming children, a pigeon pair. Virginia is the eldest and is presently undergoing her education at Kincoppal in Elizabeth Bay. Michael is aged 11 and goes to St. Aloysius'.

In the field of sport, Barney's interests lie in swimming, golf and bowls. He is a member of both the Lakes and Pennant Hills golf clubs and the Double Bay Bowling Club.

Commenting on his election to the committee, Barney says that he is very conscious of the responsibilities that this office carries. He feels that the nature of his work will allow him to give time and attention to the job.

Barney has asked that we pass on a message to all club members, and it follows in his own words:—

"I wish to express my sincere appreciation to all members who voted at the recent Tattersall's Club election.

"To my supporters, my proposer, seconder, all who assisted me, and to members who forwarded letters and telegrams of congratulation, I offer my sincere thanks."

A BRIGHT FUTURE FOR YOUNG THOROUGHBREDS

Derby and Epsom results at Randwick this Spring aroused hopes for the rising generation of our thoroughbreds.

Martello Towers, a grand colt, defeated Travel Boy in the blue riband, and each has a great future.

Noholme's Epsom triumph was one of the best three-year-old performances seen in open company for a long time.

A handsome piece of horseflesh, Noholme.

Martello Towers established a record sequence when he won four races straight—the Hobartville, Canterbury and Rosehill Guineas and Derby.

No colt or filly had ever cleaned up these semi-classics and Derby in the past.

His manner of doing it made a deep impression on the minds of the keenest racing experts, for he went to the front at the start of each race, and held off all challenges. To do this over distances of seven furlongs, nine furlongs, 10 furlongs, and a mile and a half put the hallmark on his quality as a racing three-year-old.

Martello Towers had another record. He was the first grey to win the Randwick Derby. A grey, Suwarrow, had won the Victoria Derby in 1879, but no grey was ever so placed in the Sydney classic.

Travel Boy, who followed the grey home in the earlier contests, made a more determined effort at the end of the Derby's mile and a half to get within three-quarters of a length in second place.

It was a true indication of stamina, and augurs well for his future in our important long-distance races.

Martello Towers gets his grey pigmentation from Nizami, who sired his mother, Nidhaul. Nizami sired two Melbourne Cup winners, Foxzami and Hiraji.

He is by Gaekwar's Pride, sire of a dual Derby winner, Prince Morvi.

Martello Towers was a bargain buy, and so was his mother, Nidhaul. Carrying Martello Towers, she was sold at the F. W. Hughes dispersal for 750 guineas.

Martello Towers was catalogued as a yearling, but was not offered, and Messrs. E. T. Cochrane, father and son, bought him privately at 1,000 guineas. He has won £17,000 in prize money.

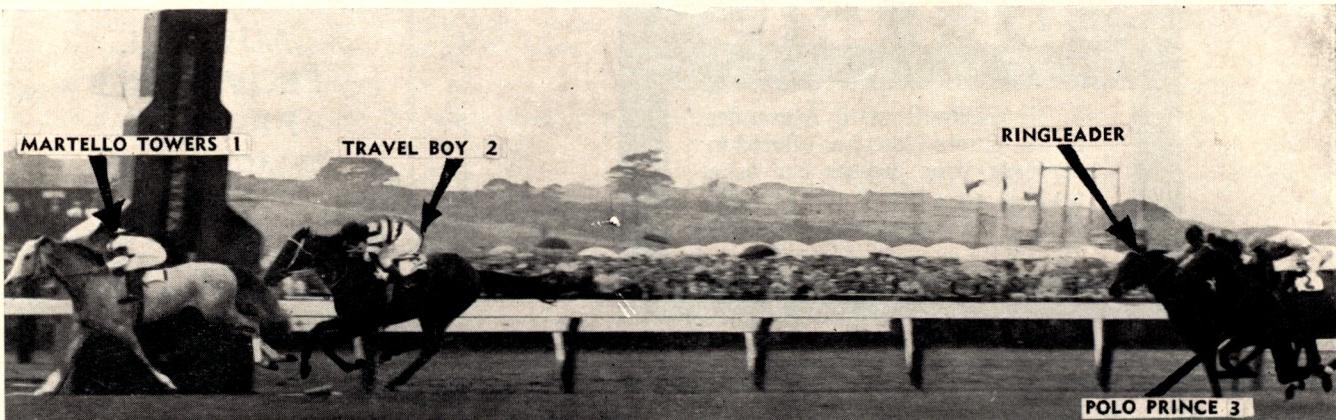

No other word than "marvellous" can apply to Noholme's Epsom win. For a three-year-old to lead all the way against Australia's champion milers and win easily was a feat of great speed and courage.

He had to run the mile in 1 min. 34-9/10 sec. to score by 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths. This time closely approaches the record 1 3 $\frac{1}{4}$ which Silver Phantom established in his 1953 Epsom success. But Silver Phantom was a mature five-year-old.

The writer's tip is that Noholme will figure prominently in our best sprint races of the near future, and the fact that he could stay the Epsom mile indicates the stamina to travel even further as he becomes better developed.

He is a brother to Todman and, as a type, falls little short of the robust size and quality of that famous speedster.

Strongly to the winning post goes Martello Towers in his Derby win.

Man of the Month

Lyn Haley

One of the best known figures in racing is Evelyn Angus Francis Haley. A man who has owned and been interested in horses ever since his teens, he received a lot of press publicity not long ago in connection with his ownership of the famous champion Tullock. At that time he was correctly reported as having refused an American offer of no less than £300,000 for the horse, which soon afterwards became sick and has not raced since.

Mr. Haley, now in his eighty-third year, was born at St. Kilda in Victoria in 1876. Compared with our current standards, the latter part of the last century was still very much of a pioneering era, and Mr. Haley can still remember vaguely his father driving the whole family from Melbourne to the Riverina in a four horse buggy. It was there the Haley family settled, and there that Lyn spent many of his early boyhood days.

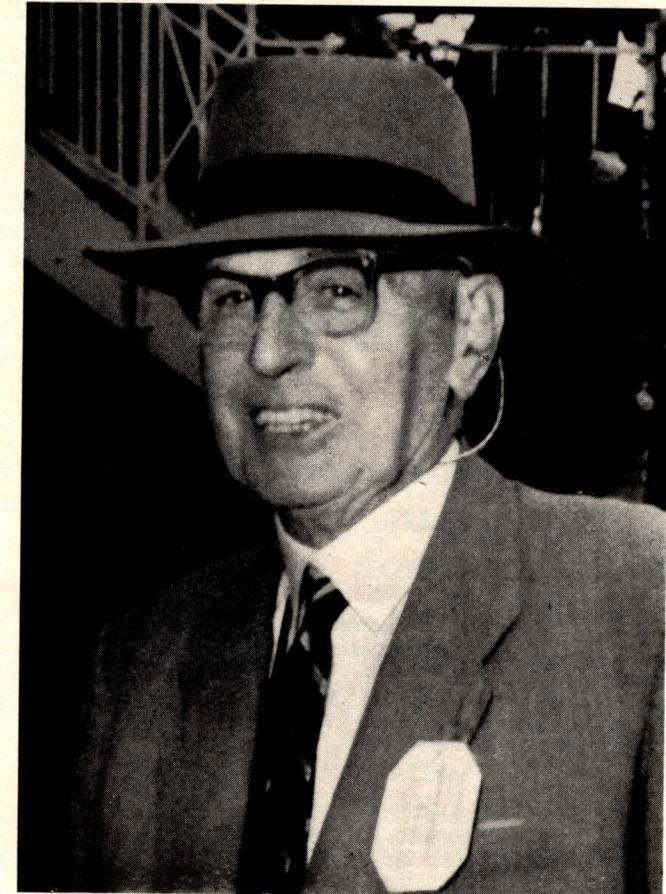

Toorak College was the venue of his education, and his early ambition was to become a doctor, as some of his brothers were destined to follow one or other of the professions. Fate was to intervene in his plans however, and while still a youngster he contracted measles and, as a result, became deaf. This defect hampered the pursuit of his studies so much that he decided to give away medicine and go on the land.

Without any money of his own he set out to find a place which he could lease. He settled on a property called "Newlands" between Condobolin and Forbes which was available at the time and prepared for operations. Still without money, but with plenty of confidence and courage, he overcame the problem of stocking the station by purchasing two thousand sheep on credit.

That was his start and he made in into an outstanding success, running "Newlands" as a very profitable venture until the death of his father. At that time the family property, "Booberoi," was left to the three sons, Lyn and his brothers Peter and Barclay.

Not anxious to go on the land, Peter sold his share out to the others. Lyn settled on it until 1914, when it was sold to A. B. Triggs.

He moved to the Bathurst area where he bought a property and started a stud. This was the beginning of the now well known "Te Koona" stud which is owned and operated by a family company, of which Lyn is the chairman of directors.

Today Mr. Haley, who can look back with pride on his well deserved success on the land, is an unassuming, quietly spoken and dignified eighty-three. He has a keen sense of humour and has a ready smile for everyone. Although the death of his wife two years ago was a tremendous loss to him, he is happy with his family. He has five surviving children; Peter, who is managing director of the family company; John, who acts as its secretary/accountant; "Pat," who has his own property; Mavis, who is married and lives in the Bathurst area; and Nancy.

Although he was a keen cricket and tennis player in his time, Mr. Haley's only interest now is in racing. He has always been a lover of horses and, in fact, was a rider of no mean repute in his younger days, riding many winners at country meetings in the Forbes, Wellington and Dubbo areas. He also rode with hunt clubs while in Victoria and still talks with nostalgia of the "chase".

Somewhat to his regret, Mr. Haley only spends about a quarter of the year at "Te Koona." For the great part of it he lives quietly in the city at his flat at Rushcutters Bay.

Of the champion Tullock, he says he is the best horse he has ever seen. He is confident that the stallion will be completely cured of his complaint and come back better than ever.

"DELTA" TROPHY NEARS COMPLETION

Main interest last month centred around the "Delta" trophy and some very interesting and exciting matches were contested in this event. One of the best matches was between Eric Thompson and Eddie Davis with Eric getting up to claim the laurels. The accent being on this trophy, the "Winooka" competition went by the board somewhat, but the committee hopes to finish out the former in the near future, and this will clear the way for the "Winooka" games.

DELTA TROPHY PROGRESS

The members are concentrating on the "Delta Trophy" and rapid progress is being made. Matches played have been very close and keenly contested.

The headlines this month must go to Eric Thomson for his defeat of Eddie Davis. Eric appears to have the edge on Eddie in handicap events. This is not the first time he has lasted long enough to win.

The match was one of those that are interesting all the way through. Nothing spectacular, like real speed, but nice placements with each player angling his opponent into position for a winning shot.

Eddie, from -5, was giving plenty start and at one stage seemed certain to go on and win but, at critical moments, he made errors which gave points to Eric. Eric meantime won points off his own good play and had just sufficient in reserve to win 41-37. Fred Harvie did a good job as umpire.

Ron Spence defeated Keith Longworth 41-37 after a very even contest.

Max Sernack surprised by winning from Jim Comans, 41-38. I'm afraid that Jim is not a competition player. In private games he looks a "world beater" but, when the chips are down in a competition match, he tightens up and does not do himself justice. Max deserved a very nice win.

Ralph Davies was too strong for Fred Harris, winning 41-37. Fred however, has a "crook" leg which prevents him from going for short drop shots, and he did very well to score 37 against such a strong opponent as Ralph Davies.

Bruce Partridge had a tough match to defeat John Shaffran 41-39. John was a very gallant loser and had Bruce flat out from start to finish. He had a long start but, you need a long start against Bruce and John did very well indeed.

Other matches to be played are:

John Bruce v. Col Bowes
Peter Lindsay v. Geo. McGilvray
Geoff Eastment v. Sid Kay
Neill Barrell v. Norm Rogers
Bill Hannan v. Ken Glass

If we can get these matches finalized at an early date, we can finish off this event very smartly. Therefore, members, I ask for co-operation, and would like you to help your committee by contacting your opponent and arranging your games. The committee do not like giving "walk overs", but will be forced to do so if the competition is not speeded up.

CONDOLENCES

It is with great regret that we have to offer our deepest sympathy to the family of the late N. P. (Mick) Murphy. Mick was associated with the handball club for many years and his passing will leave a gap on third floor. Mick was well liked and respected by all who knew him.

INTERESTING MONTH FOR ENTHUSIASTS

For billiards and snooker enthusiasts, interest last month centred around the Australian Amateur Billiards Championship, in general events, and our own Snooker Night, as far as Club activities were concerned. Our Club billiards champion, Arthur Bull, distinguished himself by coming third in the Australian championships, and the Club Snooker Night was an outstanding success, well attended despite the handicap of very bad weather.

When Thursday 20th October dawned dull, rainy and cold, some doubt was held about the attendance at the scheduled snooker exhibition evening, but, despite the very bad weather, the evening proved an outstanding success.

Most members, their ladies and friends, met on the 4th floor for cocktails and dinner before witnessing perhaps the most interesting exhibition held in the Club for some years. Three of Australia's greatest cueists met. They were: Norman Squires—undoubtedly one of the world's best professionals.

Warren Simpson—Australian Amateur Champion.

Newton Gahan—Victorian Amateur Champion.

The congenial atmosphere during the serving of refreshments indicated that these nights can be most successful. Our Chairman and Committee can be congratulated for their efforts.

During the prize giving our genial Chairman, Mr. John Hickey, responded to the banter of W. (Bill) Longworth who, incidentally, announced his retirement from championship play. However, as Chairman of the Billiards Committee, we can look forward to his help and guidance during the tournaments to come.

Bert Barnes and Bert Tonks both very sportingly referred to the lucky breaks that came their way, and their commiserations went out to Geo. Mousally and Tom Dwyer (respectively.) Note—the handicapper wasn't impressed—sorry boys.

Our Club Chairman complimented the Billiards Committee on a fine job done, and on their untiring efforts during the tournament. Our thanks go to Messrs. W. Longworth, G. Fienberg and G. Mousally.

In our last issue we reported that Arthur Bull just had time to finish out the Club billiards championship (which he won) before hurrying off to compete in the Australian championship.

Arthur put up an excellent performance to come third in the Australian event. He was beaten by R. Marshall from Western Australia and T. Cleary from Victoria.

In going down to these two, Arthur was by no means disgraced, for R. Marshall broke no less than four world records in the course of the championship, and T. Cleary was the reigning titleholder.

Here are the new world records set by R. Marshall:

In his match against A. Young of Queensland, he scored 3,391 points in four hours made up of two sessions. He broke Tom Cleary's record of 3,185 points made in 1950. His average for this match was 82.7

In the same match in one session of two hours he scored 1,896 points, breaking his own record of 1,864 made in 1938. His match average was 104.2 on this occasion.

Over twelve sessions, each of two hours, he scored an aggregate of 14,686 points for an overall average of 46.1. His rate of scoring during the championships against all opponents was 612 points per hour.

In three consecutive matches of six sessions (12 hours play) he scored 8,871 points. He beat his own previous record of 6,639 points which he set in 1938.

This was no mean feat by a man who had not participated in championship play for two years.

The standard of play during the national event can be gauged by the fact that T. Cleary took only 23 minutes to complete his highest break of 493.

Arthur Bull won three matches. His highest break was 156 and he had seven breaks over 100. His highest match average was 22.1 as against T. Marshall's highest of 82.7 and T. Cleary's of 40.4.

An interesting feature of the championships was that the trophies were donated by well-known club member, Albert Sakzewski. Albert is the Patron of the Queensland Amateur Billiards Association and is himself a holder of one record that T. Marshall cannot take from him. He was the first player to make a double break in an Australian title.

All club members congratulate you on your placing in the championships, Arthur, and hope that you might down even the mighty Marshall in next year's event.

We are very much indebted to club member, Cyril Oswald-Sealy for the very comprehensive report with which he furnished us on the championships. Cyril, as most members know, is himself Patron of the Australian Amateur Billiards Council, of which all State Amateur Associations are members, and was, naturally enough, in Brisbane for the event.

SWIM SEASON OFF TO FLYING START

It's on again! Tattersall's swimmers have gone into action for the 1959/60 season with fields of thirty-eight and thirty-nine for two opening races in October.

The new season was started on 13th October with a brief ceremony at which the trophies won last season were presented.

Bill Kirwan, donor of the "Native Son" trophies, was on deck, but he likes to keep in the background, and asked His Honour, Judge Alf Rainbow to present the two dead-heaters for second, Keith Longworth and Sid Sernack with their prizes, the winner of the big trophy, Harold Herman, being absent temporarily in hospital.

Judge Rainbow had flown from Dubbo that day to be present at the opening function and, after winning a heat of the first race, flew back to Dubbo the same day.

Tattersall's Club popular committee-man, Alf Collins, was there also to present the Club Championship trophies, which he had donated, to the placed men Dave Emanuel, Bill Kendall and Norm Rodgers. Alf's attendance was greatly appreciated and so was that of our Club Treasurer, Frank Carberry.

Donors of the monthly Point Score "Pots," Arthur McCamley and Clive Hoole, were represented by the former, Clive having departed for the Gold Coast after a brief visit to the Club during the previous week.

Arthur did a good job in handing over seven Point Score trophies and also the "T.M.S." (Too Many Seconds consolation) prizes to Harry Bate, Bill Mackenzie and Sid Kay.

Apropos the "T.M.S.", a fan asked Bill what the initials meant and our big pal replied "Truly Magnificent Swimmer, of course".

Winner of the Harry Davis Consolation trophy was John Brice, and it was good to see Harry present to hand over his prize.

During the next few days, Bill Kirwan was persuaded to emerge from seclusion, and members were delighted when he handed over his "Native Son" trophy to Harold Herman with a few well chosen words.

Leigh Bowes and Norm Gulson, absent from the opening ceremony, were presented with their trophies later in the week, but we note that there is still a "Pot" in the showcase won by John Daniell two seasons back. Hope to see John in action again soon.

The first two races attracted some welcome new members in Stan Heaton, J. F. Maunsell, Clive Gorland, Dr. Bing Whitelaw and Dave Landa and it was great to see Bobbie Adams, Bruce Chiene and Graham Cole in action again.

Heaton and Maunsell have been in the places in two races, Whitelaw swam a nice second, Gorland has a very good style which augurs well for him, and Landa, a son of our old friend and State Minister Abe Landa, swan really well in a closely contested heat.

Champion Dave Emanuel swam in the first event but went to hospital for a nose operation next day. Fortunately, it only meant a few races missed.

Shrouded in mystery in the identity of the handicapper appointed to take the place of the late Jack Gunton. The boys take a very dim view of the fact that they don't know to whom they should tell the sad story.

Anyway, the mysterious official appears to be doing a fair job as the finishes have been close, and chief critics, Jim Comans and Bruce Chiene are all for him, having been granted a second extra in handicap after looking mournful for quite a long time.

Anyway, the handicapper, whoever he may be, must have had a giggle when he caught Bill Kirwan and Cuth Goddard for a second in the first two heats of the season. Later, Arthur McCamley suffered the same fate, and Norm Rodgers was mighty lucky that he escaped, as the Judges had to resort to logarithms to give Arthur the victory over him in the heat.

Norm drew real attention to his form as he swan 19.8, time which has only been beaten in heat wins this season by Bill Kendall's 19.2 and 19.7.

Other good winning times have been 21.1 by Bob Harris, 21.2, 21.4 (twice) and 21.8 by Allan Ball, 20.5 and 21.6 by Merv Finlay, 22.1 by Ross Stanford and 22.2 by John Dexter.

Stars of the handicaps so far have been Allan Ball, in rare form with two final wins, Ross Stanford with a win and a tie for first in finals, and John Dexter a tie for first and a second in finals. As a result, Allan 15½ points leads Ross 15 and John 14½ in the October-November Point Score.

It is with the utmost sorrow that we record the death of popular "Mick" Murphy on 21st October. There was real sadness in the pool next day when Sam Block announced the sad news to members and asked them to stand in silence for a period.

"Mick" joined Tattersall's Club on 17th June, 1935, and joined up with Swimming Club next season, racing regularly and making his presence noteworthy by his sportsmanlike approach to the sport and by the fun he got out of it.

He swam in the races up to some years ago when his health forced him to give up regular competition, but even then he lined up in the Annual Ball and Christmas Scramble races when he could.

Our good friend was a man who was willing to help in all sorts of ways in an unobtrusive fashion, he organised a number of Swimming Club functions and was an unfailing supporter of all.

His influence will be felt always in the pool and he certainly will be missed, his place will be hard to fill.

To his wife and his family, Swimming Club members extend their real and very sincere sympathy.

RESULTS

13th October—40 yards Handicap:—1st Division Final: C. Godhard (27) 1, W. Kirwan (29) 2, H. Bate (30) 3. Time, 25.2 seconds. 2nd Division Final: R. Stanford (23) and J. O. Dexter (23) 1, W. Kendall (20) 3. Time, 22.3 seconds. 3rd Division Final: A. Ball (22) 1, P. B. Lindsay (25) 2, Dr. C. L. Bear (25) 3. Time, 21.4 seconds.

20th October—40 yards Handicap:—1st Division Final: A. Ball (22) 1, J. O. Dexter (23) 2, W. Kendall (20) 3. Time, 21.2 seconds. 2nd Division Final: R. Stanford (23) 1, Dr. C. L. Bear (25) 2, C. Bowes (25) 3. Time, 22.1 seconds. 3rd Division Final: M. Finlay (22) 1, A. McCamley (31) 2, N. Gulson (27) 3. Time, 20.5 seconds.

OCTOBER-NOVEMBER POINT SCORE

With two events to complete it, the leaders in this series were:—A. Ball 15½, R. Stanford 15, J. O. Dexter 14½, Dr. C. L. Bear 13, W. Kendall and C. Godhard 12, P. B. Lindsay and W. Kirwan 10, R. Dowling, H. Bate, R. Harris and E. F. Muller 9, K. Francis, S. Murray and M. Finlay 8, E. B. Phillips 7½, A. McCamley, S. Kay and N. Rodgers 7, R. Dawkins, G. Goldie, K. Glass, S. Heaton, K. Longworth, J. F. Maunsell, W. Mackenzie, S. Sernack, C. Bowes and N. Gulson 6.

MIXED FORTUNES FOR BOWLERS

The 8th October provided an excellent day's bowls at Double Bay when twenty-eight players turned out. The trophy winners were Ken Ranger's rink consisting of Vic Richards, Chas. Lavigne and Alex Buckle.

At Ashfield on October 13th our players were seen at their worst. Only one of the three teams that competed was successful. This was Jack Kellaway's team which won with a margin of seventeen.

Harold Hill's team went down, being beaten by three shots, and Ken Ranger's team failed by a margin of sixteen.

The combined scores stood at 74-72 at the end of one of our less successful bowling outings, and Tattersall's lost by two shots.

Undoubtedly, the defeat will give the selectors some food for thought and it wouldn't surprise if there aren't some changes in future.

The "Back to Double Bay Week" certainly got away to a flying start on October 15th.

A record attendance of 52 players enjoyed the very well-organised frames and a grand day's bowling was enjoyed by all who turned out.

In the point score trophy, J. K. Monro's team, consisting of E. A. Davis, R. Bailey and G. Nacard got top points with Vic Richards' team of R. Relton, G. Cohen and W. Difort as the runners up.

Several new members were welcomed to the club by President Gordon. These were Henry Joseph, Ron Relton, Noel Hammond, Ashley Buckingham, Bill Munro and Ralf Corrick. All members wish them a long and happy association with the bowling section.

Unfortunately, Thursday 22nd October brought rain and washed out what undoubtedly would have been an excellent and well-attended day. There were over 50 names on the board for the outing and I'm sure the play would have been full of interest.
